

Theory of Change

A fairer, more prosperous, engaged and inclusive Aotearoa New Zealand

Long Term Outcomes

A healthy, engaged and informed Tangata Whenua, Community and Voluntary Sector in Aotearoa New Zealand

Other Outcomes

Strategic Research/Nga Mahi Rangahau Rautaki – Research of Strategic Significance to the Sector

Connected/Nga Hononga – Connections between Researchers and the Sector, Nationally and Internationally

Visibility & Access/Nga Kitenga me Nga Putanga – The Visibility of and Access to Community Research in Aotearoa NZ

Quality and Good Practice/Te Pono me te Tika – Quality and Good Practice in Community Research in Aotearoa

Intermediate Outcomes

Sector Organisations Have Awareness Of and Commitment To Quality Assurance and Good Practice Community Research

Sector Organisations Have The Skills and Confidence to evidence their impact and effectiveness

Sector Organisations Are Aware of, Using and Contributing To Community Research's Tools and Resources.

Kuhu Mai
Maori Aspirations are met

Our Contribution

Community Research Tools and Resources are Developed

Whanau Ora Tools and Resources are Developed

What Works Tools and Resources are Developed

Accessible, culturally appropriate seminars and webinars

Social media and digital engagement

What Needs To Be In Place

Sustainable Organisation/Kia Tu Tonu Te Whare – An Ongoing, Sustainable Organisation (Financially, Ethically, Culturally & Ecologically), supported by Diverse National and Local Partnerships, Effective Partnerships and Culturally Appropriate (Treaty-Based) Ways of Working